IASLC 19th World Conference on Lung Cancer (WCLC)

WHAT: The International Association for the Study of Lung Cancer (IASLC) will host the IASLC 19th World Conference on Lung Cancer (WCLC) on September 23-26, 2018, in Toronto, Canada. The IASLC WCLC is the world's largest meeting dedicated solely to lung cancer and other thoracic malignancies, convening over 7,000 researchers, physicians, nurses and advocates from more than 100 countries.

The conference features the best and brightest minds in the field and consists of presentations on groundbreaking research in next generation treatment; educational sessions on the latest trends in prevention and early-detection; panel discussions on tobacco cessation efforts and more. The full program is available here.

WHERE: Metro Toronto Convention Centre North Building
255 Front Street West | Toronto, Ontario, M5V 2W6, Canada

WHO: Surgeons, medical oncologists, radiation oncologists, pulmonologists, radiologists, pathologists, epidemiologists, basic research scientists, nurses, allied health professionals, advocates, industry representatives and media partners will gather to share findings and to further progress. The WCLC is unique because lung cancer patients, survivors, caregivers and advocates are welcome to attend the conference in order to give all stakeholders a voice.

WHAT IS THE WCLC?

The World Conference on Lung Cancer (WCLC) is the world's largest meeting dedicated solely to lung cancer and other thoracic malignancies, attracting over 7,000 researchers, physicians and specialists from more than 100 countries. The goal is to disseminate the latest scientific achievements; increase awareness, collaboration and understanding of lung cancer and to help participants implement the latest developments across the globe. Organized under the theme of "Take Action Against Lung Cancer," the conference will cover a wide range of disciplines and unveil several research studies and clinical trial results.
